THANKSGIVING CRUISE REPORT

The Thanksgiving Cruise, it appears ended up in two sections, one to Telegraph (the lucky ones who got away Friday afternoon) and one to Centre Bay. My informant told me there were even whitecaps in Cowards Cove on Saturday. The Richmond Yacht Club were having their cruise on the Thanksgiving weekend also so many Fraser Power Squadron boats were out with them.

I got my report from our Centre Bay section so it would be interesting to hear from the Telegraph Harbour lotilla in time for our next issue.

REPORT OF GENERAL MEETING, SEPT. 16th 1977

The first Fraser Power Squadron general meeting for 1977/78 started at 2000 hrs. with a good turnout. Commander Chuck Wong welcomed everyone and said how pleased he was to see so many members present.

PROPWASH - Apparently some FPS members have not received their copies of Propwash, and if this is so in your case, please let 1st LT. Secretary, Stan Dickinson know. Telephone 946-7954.

$$$ - 1st LT. Treasurer, Margaret Halliday reported that our finances are in good shape.

COURSE CHANGES - Instructor Training course night has been changed to Thursdays.

Book maintenance will be on Tuesdays - not Wednesdays.

Commander Chuck Wong said he is proud of Fraser because it is the only Lower Mainland Power Squadron offering all courses.

FAIRLEAD - LT. Editor Jim Dunsmore would be pleased to receive anything interesting from members to help fill the newsletter. Remember that this is your magazine and a good vessel in which to carry your ideas, tips, recipes and ads for your fellow FPS members to share.

The deadline for each issue of Fairlead is the first Monday of every month.

NEXT GENERAL MEETING - The date of the next general meeting has been changed, due to overbooking by the hotel. It will now be held on the 4th Friday of October - the 28th.

TRAINING CRUISES - LT/C Training, Art Wilkes needs boats for training cruises. Please contact him with your name if you can help.

HORST KLEIN, VOLUNTEER COAST GUARD

The guest at the September general meeting was Horst Klein, who is a member of the Volunteer Coast Guard. He lives on board his 40' vessel, Queen of Storm, which he built himself. Queen of Storm is moored at Otter Bay, Pender Island, and with his wife and daughter, he maintains a 24 hour radio watch and is available to help in emergency situations. Horst entertained us with a very informative and often humorous talk on his activities, conveying a strong message on safety, proper use of radio and so on. He said that he was glad of the opportunity to talk to Power Squadron members, as they are good people to help the volunteers get to Auxilliary status.

The September meeting was a success with good attendance, an excellent topic and speaker, the usual "bar breaks", coffee and sandwiches, to round out the evening.

BOOKS

CRUISING THE NORTHWEST

by Donald Holm
(Prentice-Hall, 1977)

The Pacific Northwest is one of the most beautiful and exciting cruising grounds in the world. This book has all the information you need for getting around these waters. The author takes you down the Columbian River, covers Pudget Sound pokes around the San Juans, and circumnavigates Vancouver Island. More than a cruising guide, however, this book is the last word on how an amateur sailor, who has always dreamed of escaping the rat race, can go about purchasing, building, equipping, and sailing his "dream" ship.

COOKS

SWEET 'N' SOUR PUNGENT PRAWNS

1/4 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
2 tbsp. cornstarch
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup vinegar
1 tbsp. soy sauce
1/4 tsp. ground ginger
19 oz. can pineapple chunks
1 green pepper, cut into strips
2 small onions, cut into rings
3 lbs. prawns, shelled

In a saucepan mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Add the vinegar, soy sauce, ginger and syrup drained from pineapple, cook slowly until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Add the green pepper, onion and pineapple and simmer 2 minutes. Add the shelled prawns, bring to a boil stirring constantly, and cook 2 minutes.

Serve immediately with or over hot steamed rice.
